Hi dear friend,

Making money online is not a new phenomenon, but lately, with the popularity of social media and what's known as 'influencer' status, people, (especially well-known people or celebrities) have been able to leverage their large social media followings to gain paid work posting advertisements for brands online.

Companies and brands pay influencers to promote their service or product in the hope that their reach and influence will lead to more awareness, visibility and sales.

Usually this kind of paid activity is limited to those who have much larger social media followings, but with the launch of new app MNFST, there is now opportunity for everyone to potentially earn money from their social media accounts.

I am always looking for new ways to make money, especially from my phone. Last week I started using this app and have earned just over £40 in one week. The payouts are instant and you get rewarded for referring your friends – so let's take a look at my latest money making fund, MNFST.

What is MNFST?

MNFST (which stands for Manifest) is a new app available for both iOS and Android devices, that allows social media users to be paid for brand campaigns, even if they only have a small social media following.

Founded in 2017, after being inspired by the rise of the sharing economy – an example of which being how anyone can rent out their home on Airbnb, MNFST creators wanted to break down barriers between social media and making money, so they founded the world's first crowd promotion platform so that anyone can make money from their social media.

It gives the everyday social media user, with their own loyal followers, even if that's just family or friends, the chance to earn some money from paid campaigns. It helps keep authenticity too – users can choose to only promote campaigns they genuinely like, and skip past any they'd prefer not to post about.

MNFST acts as a broker between users and brands, giving brands the opportunity to gain more widespread and organic promotion, by working with ordinary social media users – because everyone is an influencer. They make money by taking a commission from each paid post made by a user.

Post & Get paid

Do I need to be a mega influencer to make money?

No! MNFST is providing a platform for everyone who uses social media to monetise their accounts. And it is a pretty clever idea.

When it comes to taking recommendations, who are you more likely to listen to? Big time celebrities or your mates? MNFST understands the power of those recommendations and is rewarding you for them.

Do I have to do all the Manifests?

Of course not! You can pick and choose the ones that suit you. Therefore, if there is a product or service that you are passionate about then you can choose to share that one. Likewise, you can leave those that don't feel a perfect fit.

You might decide that some are better suited to your Twitter account rather than Instagram or vice versa. You get to choose what you want to share and where.

This is an even better proposition for users:

Would you like to earn $5 per day for promoting things you like? Can this be fun? We Sure! Once you download our app you are only minutes away from earning money:

- a) Sign in with your social network account
- b) Get your Social Capital Score
- c) Instantly see how much you can earn
- d) Choose brands, events, people, movies that you want to promote
- e) Customise your page look with an ad campaign
- f) Make a personalized promotion by pressing one button
- g) That it is it — you have just started making money
- h) Make your profile work — every 24 hours count

How does MNFST work?

Once you have downloaded the MNFST app you will need to take a few moments to connect your Instagram and Twitter accounts.

Once connected, MNFST will come up with a Social Capital Score which is based on things like your engagement, follower numbers, how much you interact with others and more.

Your Social Capital Score will regularly change, going up and down. This score is then used to calculate how much you earn from each Manifest that you participate in.

Once you have signed up you will be able to see the Manifests (the tasks/jobs) that are available for you, and the price you will be paid for each one.

If you are looking to make money in an hour or less then this is perfect for you.

You'll be paid within 24 hours of completing a campaign and you can withdraw your money to PayPal or Revolut.

How much do you earn from MNFST?

The amount of money you earn from MNFST will vary depending on the campaign, your Social Capital Score and whether it is your first job with MNFST or not. Your pay will start out really low, however it will increase after you have completed your first Manifest.

You are allowed to do 3 Manifests for each social media method (Instagram grid, Instagram stories and Twitter) per week.

How to increase your Social Capital Score on MNFST

There are a few things you can do to improve your Social Capital Score.

Engaging more with your followers and others on social media will help, as well as naturally growing your followers.

The more engagement you get on your posts, the higher your score will be too.

What do the Manifests look like?

The Manifests all look different, but you will need to include a selfie in them.

Here are two examples of ones I have completed:

You can get paid from MNFST using Paypal or Revolut. To get paid via Paypal they will deduct a 7% commission, so it might be worth setting up a Revolut.

The payout to Paypal is instant!

You can also choose to donate your earnings to a charity.

Refer your friends and family to MNFST to earn more

If you think that your friends and family would love to earn money from this app then MNFST will reward you for sharing it with them.

Simply share your unique referral link and you will earn a commission from their first task.

This amount is paid into a separate wallet, in dollars, but can still be withdrawn to your Paypal account.

You can earn up to $200 from doing this.

Disclosing your ads

Remember that these manifests are adverts, and need to be disclosed as such. Don't assume the app will include the disclosure.

To disclose you simply need to start your tweet or Instagram caption with 'AD' or add 'AD' in text on your Instagram story.

So friend, discover new campaigns everyday. MNFST will show users the most relevant ad campaigns based on their demographics, interests, and profitability to participate. The key difference of MNFST is that users will earn real money, not gifts/miles or discount points. This is what celebrities and bloggers do and we believe that everybody should be able to monetise their social media accounts.

Obviously all users are different: we all have a different number of friends, our social activity differs, thus the index of our influence also varies. MNFST system takes that into account by calculating your social capital score. Users can increase it in order to become more influential and get better paid. MNFST will give it's users a fair and clear guidance on how this could be done.
